

Bioeconomy – a global view

The Utrecht manifesto

Ernst-Jan Bakker
Holland Innovation Network - BRAZIL
December 9, 2016
International Symposium on BioEconomy, São Paulo

Chapters in Utrecht Manifesto

Actions for all stakeholders

- Flagship for an European Bioeconomy
- Education, training, communication and outreach
- Cross-overs and connectivity
- Integrated part of the circular economy
- Regional development, mutual learning
- Public awareness, dialogue
- Monitoring and impact

Actions for EU and Member States

- Creating demand, public procurement
- CAP reform can contribute to Bioeconomy
- Access to finance / more investment
- More space for frontrunners, Innovation deals
- Level playing field between applications
- High level commitment, coherence in policy
- Budget and investments

Next steps

Timeline

- Bioeconomy Stakeholders Conferences in 2012 (Copenhagen), in 2013 (Dublin) and in 2014 (Turin)
- 2015: 4th SCAR Foresight Exercise, Brussels
- 2015: Bioeconomy Investment Summit in Brussels
- 2015: Global Bioeconomy Summit in Berlin
- 2016: two Exploratory Meetings on a European BioEconomy Manifesto in February and March, where the first outline of a manifesto was discussed
- And finally, the 4th BioEconomy Stakeholders' Conference in Utrecht in April 2016.

Utrecht conference April 2016

Thank you

Special thanks to
Willemien van Asselt at Netherlands Enterprise Agency

More information:

- <http://www.bioeconomyutrecht2016.eu/>

